

From: Gareth Morrow [REDACTED]
Sent: 29 September 2017 13:55
To: National Planning Framework
Subject: Donegal link motorway to Dublin

As a citizen of Donegal and Ireland I hope the proposed link between Donegal and the rest of the northwest and Dublin goes ahead. It would be better to be done before 2025 than 2040 though obviously. Perhaps the cost of a train link could be compared with a view to environmentalism and other factors also instead of the roadway.

Regards.