Dear Sir/Madam.

Having read to-days outline of "Ireland 2040 - Our Plan National Planning Framework". I ask a serious question "Is there any involvement with Ireland's Diaspora with regards to "Our Plan"?

Continuously the Government of Ireland has refused to involve any of Ireland's Immigrants in the Policy Making in matters that should involve the opinions of its Immigrants. Again I have written to the Government previously but got no reply some 2-3 years ago when I contrasted the attitude of the Australian Government in actively consulting "Its Immigrants" in Encouraging them to "Vote for important matters of Planning". I realise its a daunting task but perhaps "a change in attitude would be helpful."

Yours Sincerely

MR DAVID MCGRATH
