Subject: Ireland 2040 plan - Drogheda

Hi, My name is Dylan Halligan. I am from Drogheda in Co. Louth. I am making a submission over Drogheda not being considered for the 20 year plan. I am 23 and this decision will not just affect me but also my future children. I am appalled over this decision and I hope you will reconsider Drogheda. Drogheda is not a perfect town but has bags of potential, it even is, if not the largest towns in the country. A lot of people go through the town and with help from yourselves would help draw more people in. A lot of the buildings are empty or run down but I could see the town hoping with people if we had the right help. I would like to ask you again to reconsider Drogheda for the 20 year plan as the status and future of my hometown is in your hands. I hope you will make the right decision.

Yours sincerely,

Dylan Halligan.
