To whom it may concern,

I believe Sligo is not fulfilling its potential and becoming a future economic hub of the North west. There is so much more that can be done with regards to tourism, festivals, attracting outside business interest and jobs.

I have travelled the world on and off over the past 8 years, and from my point of view there is no place on Earth as beautiful with everything at ones disposal in this unique paradise.

I am passionate about Sligo and I want to see it grow and develop. Make Sligo a City where it can achieved its full potential.

Yours sincerely,
