

- How will the plan help to reinvigorate town and city centres, by getting people living in the spaces over shops and offices; and making these areas living again;?
- How will the plan re-populate rural/dispersed area when planning restrictions apply?
- How can the plan accommodate the return of emigrants (to retire or to set up new business) when they can't get a licence without going through the six month "training" process?
- How will the plan reverse the 11% population decline in Goleen and Crookhaven, in West Cork? In twenty years would that equate to a 44% decline?
